In Search of Prosperity

ANALYTIC NARRATIVES ON ECONOMIC GROWTH

Edited by

Dani Rodrik
Contents

Acknowledgments vii
List of Contributors ix

Chapter 1. Introduction: What Do We Learn from Country Narratives? 1
   Dani Rodrik

PART I: HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVES ON ECONOMIC GROWTH

   Ian W. McLean and Alan M. Taylor

Chapter 3. One Polity, Many Countries: Economic Growth in India, 1873-2000 53
   Gregory Clark and Susan Wolcott

Chapter 4. An African Success Story: Botswana 80
   Dawn Acemoglu, Simon Johnson, and James A. Robinson

PART II: TRANSITIONS INTO AND OUT OF GROWTH

Chapter 5. A Toy Collection, a Socialist Star, and a Democratic Dud? Growth Theory, Vietnam, and the Philippines 123
   Lant Pritchett

Chapter 6. Growing into Trouble: Indonesia after 1966 152
   Jonathan Temple

Chapter 7. India since Independence: An Analytic Growth Narrative 184
   J. Bradford DeLong

Chapter 8. Who Can Explain the Mauritian Miracle? Meade, Romer, Sachs, or Rodrik? 205
   Arvind Subramanian and Devesh Roy

Chapter 9. Venezuela's Growth Implosion: A Neoclassical Story? 244
   Ricardo Hausmann

Chapter 10. History, Policy, and Performance in Two Transition Economies: Poland and Romania 271
   Georges de Menil
PART III: INSTITUTIONS IN DETAIL

Chapter 11. How Reform Worked in China
Yingyi Qian
297

Chapter 12. Sustained Macroeconomic Reforms, Tepid Growth: A Governance Puzzle in Bolivia?
Daniel Kaufmann, Massimo Mastruzzi, and Diego Zavaleta
334

Chapter 13. Fiscal Federalism, Good Governance, and Economic Growth in Mexico
Maite Careaga and Barry R. Weingast
399

PART IV: ECONOMIC GROWTH WITHOUT SOCIAL DEVELOPMENT

Chapter 14. The Political Economy of Growth without Development: A Case Study of Pakistan
William Easterly
439

Index
473

EARLY versions of the (exception) first presented Growth," held at the University, April 20-21, 2001. I am most grateful to our generous financial support. It is a country narratives possible with our kind permission. I thank in particular the assistance of the organizers: Aghion, Abhijit Banerjee, Alan Hirsch, Ishrat Hossain, Thaddeus Jorgenson, and Yung Chul Park. Urjit Patel handled the logistics for the conference and administrative preparation.