Contents

List of tables | vii
Acknowledgements | viii

1 Elites, perceptions and poverties
ELISA REIS AND MICK MOORE
Elites I 2 Perceptions | 3 Motivations | 3 Knowledge and policy I 6 Political culture | 8 Representing the diversity of inequalities | 9 Representing the diversity of the South I 112
Comparing perceptions 114 What did we find? 117
Organization of the book | 20

2 Perceptions of poverty and inequality among Brazilian elites
ELISA REIS
Brazilian social structure in historical perspective | 27
Looking at the elite | 32 Elite perceptions of poverty and inequality: consensus | 34 Elite perceptions of poverty and inequality: variation | 48 Brazilian elites in comparative perspective | 50 Concluding comments | 51

3 Voices from the top of the pile: elite perceptions of poverty and the poor in the Philippines
GERARD CLARKE AND MARITES SISON
Research methods | 58 Elitism and the national oligarchy | 60
Poverty as a problem | 63 The root causes of poverty | 66
Imagining the poor | 69 Looking in the mirror: the elite on the elite | 71 Ties that bind: links between the elite and the poor I 73 Citizenship and the Filipino elite | 75 Institutional responses to poverty I 77 Conclusion | 80 Annexe: list of interviewees | 82

4 So near and yet so far: elites and imagined poverty in Bangladesh
NAOMI HOSSAIN AND MICK MOORE
Bangladesh and its elites | 91 How do Bangladeshi elites imagine poverty? 197 How do Bangladeshi elites imagine their relationship to the poor? 1102 What can be done about poverty? 1111 Concluding comment: social consciousness? 1119

5 Haitian elites and their perceptions of poverty and of inequality
OMAR RIBEIRO THOMAZ
Research 1128 From colony to nation: the constitution of contemporary Haiti | 128 A contemporary social map 1132
The elites and their perceptions of poverty and inequality 1136
Final remarks 1149

6 Elite perceptions of poverty and poor people in South Africa
NOUSHIN KALATI AND JAMES MANOR
Methodology 1156 Profiling poverty and inequality in South Africa 1157 Elite perceptions 1159 Social segmentation 1168
The invisibility of rural poverty 1173 Non-ANC elites, resource issues and poverty 1174 Implications 1176

7 Elite perceptions of the poor: reflections on a comparative research project
ABRAM DE SWAAN

8 Elites, poverty and public policy
MICK MOORE AND NAOMI HOSSAIN
Elites, culture and poverty 1195 Implications for the contemporary South 1198 Fear and opportunity | 200
In summary | 207

About the contributors | 211
Index I 213