INTERNATIONAL PUBLIC RELATIONS

Negotiating Culture, Identity, and Power

Patricia A. Curtin
University of Oregon

T. Kenn Gaither
Elon University
Contents

Preface xi
Acknowledgments xii

1. The Challenges of International Public Relations 1
   In Search of an Identity: Defining Public Relations 3
   Myriad Forms of Public Relations 6
     Emerging Democracies, Developing
     Public Relations 8
     Nation Building 9
     Best Foot Forward Public Relations 10
     Business-Driven Public Relations 11
   Cultural Relationship Constructs 12
   International Public Relations Today 13
   Chapter Summary 16

2. Opening Global Gateways 17
   Multinational Corporations: Global Opportunities and Problems 21
   National Image Cultivation 24
     Dynamic South Korea 25
     Swaziland's Approach to Public Relations 26
   Travel and Tourism 28
   Sports and International Goodwill 29
   Nonprofits and International NGOs 30
   Trade Associations 31
   Keys to Opening Global Gateways 32
   Chapter Summary 33

3. Global Public Relations and the Circuit of Culture 35
   Language, Meaning, and Culture 36
   The Circuit of Culture Model 37
4. The Regulatory Environments of Global Public Relations Practice

Notions of Regulation 51
Shifting Politics, Evolving Public Relations 53
The Agents of Blurring Boundaries 56
   Politics 56
   Technology 57
   Economy 59
Cultural Norms: The Hidden Regulators 60
Regulating Global Public Relations Practice 65
Chapter Summary 65
Case Study: Smallpox Eradication Campaign 66
International Power and Politics 66
   Cold War Politics 67
   Negotiating Boundaries 69
   Applying Moral Suasion 70
Bucking the Bureaucracy 71
Adapting to Local Norms and Cultures 73
Implications for International Practice 75

5. The Face and Shape of Global Public Relations Campaign Materials 11
   Representing Representation 78
   New Discourses Through Technology and Trade Shows 81
      Meanings Encoded in Trade Shows 82
      Identifying a Discourse of Russian Technology in Trade Shows 83
   The Representation of a Fast Food Superpower in Asia 84
      KFC Negotiates Asian Culture 86
      Creating New Understandings of Asia and KFC 87
   Paradise Found in the Galapagos Islands 88
7. Consumption: Rethinking Publics and Practice

- The Moment of Consumption
- Public Relations Practice and Consumption
- Recasting Research and Issues Management
- Privileging Ethnographic Methods
- The Role of Relative Power
- The Challenges and Ambiguities of New Technology and Globalization
- The Role of New Technology
- Consuming the Globe
- Globalized Consumption in the Developing World

Chapter Summary
Case Study: Smallpox Eradication Campaign

- Smallpox Deified
  - Shitala Mata in India
  - Sapona in Western Africa
  - Omolu in Brazil
  - Christian Sects in Southern Africa
- Cultural Factors Leading to Preferred or Negotiated Readings
- Cultural Factors Leading to Oppositional Readings
- Implications for International Practice

8. Contested Identities, Shifting Publics in a Globalized World

- Constructing Identities
  - Subjectivity and Individual Identities
  - Active Publics, Fluid Identities
- Organizational Identities
  - Fractured Identities, Activist Publics
  - Forging New Organizational Identities
- Defining National Identities
  - Cultural Identity and Authenticity
  - Nation Building and Branding
  - National and Cultural Identities in a Hybrid World

Chapter Summary
Case Study: Smallpox Eradication Campaign

- Negotiating National Versus International Identities
- First World Versus Third World Values
- Holy Warriors Versus the Enemy
- Creating Campaign Icons
- Implications for International Practice
9. Capturing the Synergy of the Circuit: The Cultural-Economic Model
Lessons From the Smallpox Eradication Campaign
The Competing Discourses of Smallpox Eradication
Bringing the Circuit Full Circle
Needed: A New Model of International Public Relations Practice
The Cultural-Economic Model of International Public Relations Practice
The Centrality of Culture
The Question of Identity in a Globalized World
The Micropolitics of Power
Practitioners as Cultural Intermediaries
Chapter Summary

10. Circuiteding the Globe: A Practice Matrix
Assumptions of International Public Relations
Existing Discourses and the Production of Meaning
Race, Gender, Class, Age, and Language as Discursive Productions
Summarizing International Public Relations Assumptions
A Practice Matrix for International Public Relations
Relationship of the Matrix to the Model
The Starting Point: Regulation
Applying the Matrix
Ipas and Chile
Abercrombie & Fitch Consider Great Britain
Contributions of the Matrix
Chapter Summary

11. Ethical Considerations in Global Practice
The Problem of Cultural Relativism
Negotiating Cultural Relativism
Laws, Norms, and Bribery
Globalization and the Shift of Power
Common Approaches to Public Relations Ethics
Codes of Ethics
Stakeholder Ethics
Discourse Ethics
New Ethical Approaches and Practitioners' Roles
12. The Future of International Public Relations Practice

Implications for Practitioners Embracing the Cultural-Economic Model

Reframing Public Relations Practice Across Borders and Cultures

Defining Global Public Relations

Challenging Assumptions

Where Do We Go From Here?

Global Processes of Meaning Making and Public Relations

Global Politics and Economy

The Cultural Engine

Chapter Summary

Bibliography

Index

About the Authors