

Rebecca Popp
Wilhelm Schmeisser

Human Resources and Organizational Approaches

UVK Verlagsgesellschaft mbH
Konstanz und München

Table of Content

Preface	5
Vorwort	6
1 Theories on personnel management – from productivity to value and knowledge-based human capital	13
1.1 Scientific management as predecessor of a function-oriented personnel management	13
1.2 Scientific management as practical trigger of "function-oriented personnel management"	14
1.3 Finance-oriented personnel management as further concept...	20
1.3.1 Capital market-oriented approach	23
1.3.2 Goals of personnel cost planning	25
1.3.3 Criteria of personnel cost planning	26
1.3.4 Continued remuneration in case of sickness	27
1.4 Personnel management based on behavioural-science and labour psychology	27
1.5 Labour economics: a macroeconomic concept	32
2 Calculation of selected personnel management instruments and numbers of the annual financial statement for the Berlin Balanced Scorecard Approach	41
2.1 Connection of the accounting systems in the annual financial statement	41
2.2 Personnel controlling and the Berlin Balanced Scorecard Approach	42
2.2.1 Personnel controlling as internal information supply...	43
2.2.2 Personnel controlling as coordinator of the personnel management system	44
2.3 Balanced Scorecard – A personnel Performance Management Approach	45

2.3.1	Traditional performance measurement systems of personnel controlling	45
2.3.2	Return-on-Investment – a personnel performance approach	46
2.3.3	Balanced Scorecard as instrument for strategy implementation	48
2.3.4	Balanced Scorecard terminology	49
2.3.5	Goal and scope of action of the balanced scorecard...	49
2.3.6	Balanced Scorecard Structure	51
2.3.7	Controlling perspectives of the Balanced Scorecard...	51
3	Berlin Balanced Scorecard Approach	59
3.1	Conception	59
3.2	Application of the Berlin Balanced Scorecard Approach	60
3.2.1	Data basis (cf. Annual financial statement 2010 BASF)	60
3.2.2	On connecting the financial and customer perspective	61
3.2.3	Customer perspective: A marketing perspective	66
3.2.4	Connection between the customer-/market and the financial perspective	69
3.2.5	On the connection of the internal process perspective and the employee potential or human capital perspective with the financial perspective	70
4	Basic considerations on organizational concepts	83
4.1	Toyota's Just-in-Time: an organizational success story	83
4.2	Organizational Targets: no performance measurement without targets	89
4.3	On the necessity of organizational concepts	91
4.4	Organizational concepts and assumptions	94

4.4.1	On the structural approach: metaphor – organization as "machine"	95
4.4.2	Behavioural science and labour organization based organization concept	96
4.4.3	Legal-political organizational approach: companies as governance instrument and political arena for interest groups	99
4.4.4	On the visionary, symbolic cultural organizational approach	103
4.4.5	Corporate organizational theory as approach for the recognition, analysis and design regarding organizational problems	105
4.5	On Kosiol's traditional organizational theory	107
4.6	Organizational analysis	114
	Literature	121
	Index	127