

Contributions in Critical Museology and Material Culture

COLLECTORS

Expressions of Self and Other

Edited by

Anthony Shelton

The Horniman Museum and Gardens, London

Museu Antropologico da Universidade de Coimbra

Contents

Foreword	Mike Rowlands	7
Preface	Anthony Shelton	9
Introduction: The Return of the Subject.	Anthony Shelton	11
1 The Eloquence of Objects.	Roger Cardinal	23
2 Leon Underwood: An Artist Collector.	Celina Jeffery	33
3 The Dogs of Fo: Gender, Identity and Collecting.	Sarah Cheang	55
4 Scholars and Connoisseurs: Knowledge and Taste. The Seligman Collection of Chinese Art.	Nicky Levell	73
5 Naga Independence, Women and Radical Collectors: Themes in the Horniman Museum's Naga Collection.	Andy West	91
6 In the Shadow of the Palace: Frederick J. Horniman and His Collections.	Ken Teague	111
7 Merchants, Musicians and Missionaries: Contributors to the Musical Instrument Collection of the Horniman Museum 1898-1998.	Margaret Birley	137
8 Quex for Adventure: The Powell-Cotton Family Enterprise From Field to Showcase.	Keith Nicklin	147
9 From the Fetish to the Specimen: The Ridyard African Collection at the Liverpool Museum 1895-1916.	Louise Tythacott	157
10 Discontinuous Histories: The Royal Albert Memorial Museum, Exeter and its African Collection, 1868-1996,	Nicky Levell	181
11 Rational Passions: Frederick John Horniman and Institutional Collectors.	Anthony Shelton	205
12 The Arts of the Portuguese Empire: The Emergence of Cokwe Art in the Province of Angola.	Nuno Porto	225
Notes on Contributors		249~