

GRAPHIC DESIGN IN MUSEUM EXHIBITIONS

Display, Identity and Narrative

Jona Piehl

CONTENTS

List of figures	ix
Acknowledgements	xii
1 Framing and reframing exhibition graphic design	4
Graphic design in museum exhibitions	4
Exhibitions and exhibition narratives	11
Perspectives on exhibition graphics	14
Analysing exhibition graphic design	18
2 Exhibition graphics as means of display	36
Talking about exhibition graphics	36
The distributed text	40
Strategies of coding	48
Access and orientation	60
Exhibition graphics as a graphic genre	68
3 Exhibition graphics as expressions of institutional identity	84
Brand museum	84
Expressions of visual identity in the exhibition	94
Exhibition authorship	100
4 Exhibition graphics as visual content	118
Multimodal narratives	118
Time and space	120
Participants of the storyworld	135

	Narrators and narrative constructions	142
	Legibility of visual content	151
5	Exhibition graphics as a resource of exhibition narration	158
	Staging stories	158
	Materiality, production and installation	161
	Spatial-visual configurations	165
	The shape of the text	184
	Reading exhibition narratives	191
6	Negotiating the multiple roles of exhibition graphics	200
	Relationships, tensions, conflicts	200
	Negotiations	209
	Exhibition graphics and the medium exhibition	211
	Exhibition graphics in the context of larger discourses	215
	... and exhibition-making practice	226
	List of exhibitions and museums	237
	Bibliography	242
	Index	257